

Goldenberg's

"THE DEPENDABLE STORE," SEVENTH AND K STREETS.
Store Closes Daily at 6 P.M. Excepting Saturdays.

Housekeepers' Sale.

Washington housewives are coming to look forward to our Wednesday sale of Housekeeping Supplies more and more every week, as the increasing business shows. We make it so interesting in offerings and attractive in values that nobody can afford to stay away. Tomorrow's "Housekeepers' Sale" is no exception.

Sheets, Pillow Cases and Sheeting.

Housekeepers will need no second bidding to attend tomorrow's saving event. The prices for standard brands of Cottons are so well known that when we quote prices that are in every instance far below regular cost the response is bound to be overwhelming. No better time to fix up the home for fall than tomorrow.

81x90 D. & K. Sheets.....55c.	Fifty pieces of 9-quarter Unbleached Doublebed, full width for double beds. Full pieces—not remnants. Special, yard, at.....	17½c.
81x90 Belvidere Sheets.....52c.
81x90 Linen-finish Sheets.....48c.
81x90 Salem Sheets.....65c.
81x90 Manhattan Sheets.....58c.
81x90 Glenwood Sheets.....67c.
72x90 Mohawk Sheets.....59c.

75c. and $1 Pictures, 59c. Each. 50c. and 69c. Tapestry, 33c. a Yard.

The Picture Department has been moved from the basement to the fourth floor. To quickly acquaint customers with the new location we offer this under-price special tomorrow:

300 Pictures, with gilt frames, in a varied assortment of desirable subjects. Size 15 by 25 and 18 by 22 inches. Regular 75c. and $1.00 values, at 59c.

50-inch Tapestry, in a variety of new and desirable designs, in all the leading colorings for fall. Styles include the oriental stripes and floral patterns. Regular 50c. to 69c. qualities offered for Housekeepers' Day at 33c. a yard. Fourth Floor.

Table & Toilet Linens Under Price

Housekeepers' Day in the Linen Department means more than usual value for the money. Our regular prices are invariably lower than other stores ask for equal grades, but every Wednesday we shave profits still lower.

Heavy Huck Towels, with neat red border and plain white. Good heavy quality. Sold usually at 12½c. each. Special tomorrow, at 9½c.

Fine quality Mercerized Table Damask, in a variety of handsome patterns; guaranteed to retain its lustre after laundering. Quality unequalled for less. 44c. each, 59c. yard, at.....

Superior quality German Damask Napkins, in neat dice patterns. Offered as a special for Housekeepers' Day, each at..... 27½c.

Good heavy quality Hemmed Tea Towels, with neat red border; also some plain white ones. Special for Housekeepers' Day, each at..... 3½c.

Crystal Glass Wash Boards, will last for years with ordinary care. Do not rust or tear the clothes. Regular 39c. value, at..... 29c.

Mrs. Potts' Sad Irons, consisting of three irons, stand and handle. Special tomorrow at..... 79c.

Extra quality Tin Wash Boilers, with copper bottom; guaranteed against leakage for one year. Special at..... 89c.

Regular $1.69 "Challenge" brand Clothes Wringers, pure rubber rolls vulcanized on the shafts. Special at..... $1.39

Superior quality Tissue Toilet Paper, full 1,000 sheets to the roll. Special at..... 5c.

Genuine Rogers Silver-plated Tea Spoons, in plain and fancy designs. Set of six for..... 39c.

4-gallon size Galvanized Iron Garbage Cans, sold regularly at 50c. Special at..... 39c.

20-gallon size Galvanized Iron Ash Cans, with corrugated sides and riveted handles. Special at..... 98c.

Galvanized Iron Wash Tubs, with corrugated sides; sold regularly at 50c. each. Special at..... 37c.

Regular $1.69 "Challenge" brand Clothes Wringers, pure rubber rolls vulcanized on the shafts. Special at..... $1.39

Superior quality Tissue Toilet Paper, full 1,000 sheets to the roll. Special at..... 5c.

Genuine Rogers Silver-plated Tea Spoons, in plain and fancy designs. Set of six for..... 39c.

4-gallon size Galvanized Iron Garbage Cans, sold regularly at 50c. Special at..... 39c.

20-gallon size Galvanized Iron Ash Cans, with corrugated sides and riveted handles. Special at..... 98c.

Galvanized Iron Wash Tubs, with corrugated sides; sold regularly at 50c. each. Special at..... 37c.

Regular $1.69 "Challenge" brand Clothes Wringers, pure rubber rolls vulcanized on the shafts. Special at..... $1.39

Superior quality Tissue Toilet Paper, full 1,000 sheets to the roll. Special at..... 5c.

Genuine Rogers Silver-plated Tea Spoons, in plain and fancy designs. Set of six for..... 39c.

4-gallon size Galvanized Iron Garbage Cans, sold regularly at 50c. Special at..... 39c.

20-gallon size Galvanized Iron Ash Cans, with corrugated sides and riveted handles. Special at..... 98c.

Galvanized Iron Wash Tubs, with corrugated sides; sold regularly at 50c. each. Special at..... 37c.

Regular $1.69 "Challenge" brand Clothes Wringers, pure rubber rolls vulcanized on the shafts. Special at..... $1.39

Superior quality Tissue Toilet Paper, full 1,000 sheets to the roll. Special at..... 5c.

Genuine Rogers Silver-plated Tea Spoons, in plain and fancy designs. Set of six for..... 39c.

4-gallon size Galvanized Iron Garbage Cans, sold regularly at 50c. Special at..... 39c.

20-gallon size Galvanized Iron Ash Cans, with corrugated sides and riveted handles. Special at..... 98c.

Galvanized Iron Wash Tubs, with corrugated sides; sold regularly at 50c. each. Special at..... 37c.

Order a Case of Finley's Diamond "F" DISTILLED WATER TODAY.

Most cases of typhoid are contracted from drinking impure water. Protect yourself—drink pure water. The purest water obtainable is Diamond "F" Distilled Water. Reasonably priced, too.

A trial glass of the water FREE at our uptown branch—1109 14th St.

F. H. FINLEY & SON,
208 Mass. Ave. N.E.
Phone E. 18.

A reception will be tendered Thursday evening next, the 15th instant, in honor of Mrs. Lida A. Oldroyd, national junior vice president of the W. B. C., at the home of the Potomac Department president, Mrs. Ida L. Chase, 128 Harrison street, Annapolis. Some confusion has arisen as to the date of this reception, but those who received cards are advised that they have correct information.

Among the passengers landed at Baltimore by the steamer Brooklyn, from the island of Jamaica, today last, were Mrs. Jane S. McLean, Mrs. Martha E. Armstrong and Miss Lillie Bucher of this city.

A granddaughter of the late Secretary of State Bayard, Miss Mabel Bayard Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Warren, will be married shortly to Mr. Joseph Gardner Bradley. The bride-elect is tall, slender, with fair coloring, and excels in all the out-door athletic pastimes. She has a younger sister, Katherine, named for her brilliant aunt, Katherine Bayard.

Whose sudden death caused such a sensation during the first Cleveland administration, who is already a fine horsewoman, and two brothers, Samuel D. Warren, Jr., and Bayard Warren.

Representative and Mrs. Morrill gave a dinner last week at Harbor in honor of Representative Bourke Cockran, and in the company to meet him were Mr. and Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, Dr. and Mrs. Madison Taylor, Mrs. Inglis and Miss Patten of Washington.

The marriage of Miss Jean Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morton of Chicago, and niece of the Secretary of the Navy, to Mr. Joseph Cudahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cudahy, also of Chicago, will be celebrated October 1 at Arbor Lodge, Nebraska City, Neb.

The marriage of Miss Alice Howe Brown, daughter of Representative and Mrs. James W. Brown of Pennsylvania and Samuel Clarke Reed will take place at the home of the bride's parents, in Woodland road, near Pittsburgh, Saturday afternoon, October 1. Miss Florence Howe Brown will be her sister's only attendant. William McKenna Reed, a brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Mr. Reed is a son of George W. Reed of Woodmont street, East St. Louis, and is assistant cashier of the People's National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse spent last week at St. Louis with their son and several friends, and are now back at Lenox. They have several entries at the horse show.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle and Miss Carlisle of this city, who have been abroad all summer, returned to New York yesterday.

Dr. Joseph Ledy will give a luncheon tomorrow at his Narragansett cottage in honor of Judge White of the United States Supreme Court.

The British ambassador and Lady Dufferin will be in honor at a luncheon yesterday at Lenox.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, who are visiting Mrs. James P. Kernochan at Newport, were to leave there today for this city.

Mrs. John Robertson left on the 12th for Pennsylvania to visit her sister.

Mrs. Andrew B. Graham, with her three boys, is spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

Rev. A. De Long of Easton and his friend, Rev. J. A. Feger of Bangor, Pa., are spending their vacation in this city as the guests of Rev. De Long's daughter, Mrs. Paul S. Gable, 87 street northeast. Both men are veterans of the civil war, the former having been stationed here at the time of Lincoln's assassination.

Mr. E. Gullford and family of 405 D street northeast have returned from a vacation at Beach. They had in their party Mrs. E. R. Reynolds, Messrs. Frank, Robert and Arthur Reynolds, Messrs. C. W. Wood, Powell, Lender, Miss Marie Buccachan, Miss May and Arthur Gullford.

The marriage of Mr. G. W. Keys of Atlantic City and Mrs. Adele Johnson of 2117 K street, northwest, took place yesterday. Miss May Tobias and Mr. Edw. Lucas attended the couple. The presents were numerous. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, Messrs. C. W. Wood, Powell, Reed, Hicks, Miss Lila Reeder, Messrs. Breder, Charles Reeder, William Brooks, Misses Beatrice Wright, Flora Reeder and Mr. T. J. Lucas.

Miss Hadger and Miss Pauline Hadger have returned from a trip through the west, which included a month at the St. Louis exposition.

Miss Lottie Langhney of Capitol Hill has returned from a two months' vacation at Woodlawn, in the Blue Ridge mountains.

Miss Margaret Pierpont and Miss Evelyn Price of this city are now on an extensive visiting trip to Maryland and Virginia, and are expected home in November.

Mr. Chas. E. Dudley of Georgetown, D. C., an old veteran fireman, and Miss Ella Dudley of Falls Church, Va., were married yesterday by Rev. Alvan Smith of Peck's Chapel at the residence of the former in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. B. West Baker of Winchester, Va., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Love Virginia Baker, to Mr. McKenney Henry of Washington, D. C. The ceremony will take place at Glendoblin, the Baker home, near Winchester, on Wednesday, September 21, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Marsh Saunders of Buffalo have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Tuna V. to Mr. Percy Hickling Russell of this city. The ceremony will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Kenmore M. E. Church, and it will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride. At home at No. 3115 11th street, Washington, D. C.

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses have been issued as follows: Frank J. Shoop and Maud M. Mead. Robert H. Washington of Sunbury, Pa., and Lila A. Burks of this city.

Robert Doyle and Caroline Davis, both of Prince William county, Va. Ephraim Carter and Gertrude Thomas. J. Hubbard Bean and Alice L. Everett. George W. Simms and Lottie Willis.

Deaths in the District. The following deaths were reported to the health office for the twenty-four hours ended at noon today: Rosetta Bailey, Freedmen's Hospital, 14 years. James Bell, Freedmen's Hospital, 62 years. Jennie Bildman, 1407 8th street northwest, 72 years. Cyrus Brown, Freedmen's Hospital, 65 years. Lillian L. Curtin, 956 Florida avenue northwest, 1 year.

Margaret E. Main, Georgetown University Hospital, 17 years. Helen E. Marks, 521 7th street southeast, 70 years.

Woodford G. McDowell, 1429 Rhode Island avenue northwest, 86 years. Mack Neddow, Children's Hospital, 4 months.

August L. Ockert, 500 4th street southeast, 70 years. Mabel Randolph, 7 Keadys court northwest, 7 months.

Chester A. Schnopp, 806 7th street southwest, 20 years. Mary Scott, 10 McCullough street northwest, 1 year.

John P. Strom, 1 Crabtree court southwest, 64 years. Beverly Tucker, 215 K street northwest, 62 years.

Geneva Wahler, 217 Fillmore street, Annapolis, 63 years. Ignatius Wahler, 1132 Half street southeast, 64 years.

Ruth E. Winfield, 507 Virginia avenue southeast, 3 months.

The Society of the Chemical Industry of London, now on tour of this country, will be given a reception with a buffet supper tonight at Rauscher's. About 100 members and twenty-five ladies make up the company, and the cake-walk, which is to be a feature of the entertainment, was arranged at the request of the Londoners, who have long desired to see this particular style of enjoyment in the way of a dance.

A farewell reception was given to Mr. George Biddle last Sunday evening at his residence, 506 L street southwest, by his friends, in honor of his departure to Baltimore College. The rooms were artistically decorated with palms and cut flowers. Music, singing and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. James King, Mrs. Chas. Sanford, the Misses McCauley, Miss Carrie King, Miss E. Mae King, Miss Ruth King, Miss May Hall, Miss Ida Hawk, Miss Isabelle Fanning and Messrs. William Pfunder, William Fanning and William F. Zanner.

A reception will be tendered Thursday evening next, the 15th instant, in honor of Mrs. Lida A. Oldroyd, national junior vice president of the W. B. C., at the home of the Potomac Department president, Mrs. Ida L. Chase, 128 Harrison street, Annapolis. Some confusion has arisen as to the date of this reception, but those who received cards are advised that they have correct information.

Among the passengers landed at Baltimore by the steamer Brooklyn, from the island of Jamaica, today last, were Mrs. Jane S. McLean, Mrs. Martha E. Armstrong and Miss Lillie Bucher of this city.

A granddaughter of the late Secretary of State Bayard, Miss Mabel Bayard Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Warren, will be married shortly to Mr. Joseph Gardner Bradley. The bride-elect is tall, slender, with fair coloring, and excels in all the out-door athletic pastimes. She has a younger sister, Katherine, named for her brilliant aunt, Katherine Bayard.

Whose sudden death caused such a sensation during the first Cleveland administration, who is already a fine horsewoman, and two brothers, Samuel D. Warren, Jr., and Bayard Warren.

Representative and Mrs. Morrill gave a dinner last week at Harbor in honor of Representative Bourke Cockran, and in the company to meet him were Mr. and Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, Dr. and Mrs. Madison Taylor, Mrs. Inglis and Miss Patten of Washington.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

A BUFFET SUPPER AND A CAKE WALK FOR VISITORS.

Recent and Coming Events Along Hospitable Lines—Travel Plans—Personal Notes.

The Society of the Chemical Industry of London, now on tour of this country, will be given a reception with a buffet supper tonight at Rauscher's. About 100 members and twenty-five ladies make up the company, and the cake-walk, which is to be a feature of the entertainment, was arranged at the request of the Londoners, who have long desired to see this particular style of enjoyment in the way of a dance.

A farewell reception was given to Mr. George Biddle last Sunday evening at his residence, 506 L street southwest, by his friends, in honor of his departure to Baltimore College. The rooms were artistically decorated with palms and cut flowers. Music, singing and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. James King, Mrs. Chas. Sanford, the Misses McCauley, Miss Carrie King, Miss E. Mae King, Miss Ruth King, Miss May Hall, Miss Ida Hawk, Miss Isabelle Fanning and Messrs. William Pfunder, William Fanning and William F. Zanner.

A reception will be tendered Thursday evening next, the 15th instant, in honor of Mrs. Lida A. Oldroyd, national junior vice president of the W. B. C., at the home of the Potomac Department president, Mrs. Ida L. Chase, 128 Harrison street, Annapolis. Some confusion has arisen as to the date of this reception, but those who received cards are advised that they have correct information.

Among the passengers landed at Baltimore by the steamer Brooklyn, from the island of Jamaica, today last, were Mrs. Jane S. McLean, Mrs. Martha E. Armstrong and Miss Lillie Bucher of this city.

A granddaughter of the late Secretary of State Bayard, Miss Mabel Bayard Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Warren, will be married shortly to Mr. Joseph Gardner Bradley. The bride-elect is tall, slender, with fair coloring, and excels in all the out-door athletic pastimes. She has a younger sister, Katherine, named for her brilliant aunt, Katherine Bayard.

Whose sudden death caused such a sensation during the first Cleveland administration, who is already a fine horsewoman, and two brothers, Samuel D. Warren, Jr., and Bayard Warren.

Representative and Mrs. Morrill gave a dinner last week at Harbor in honor of Representative Bourke Cockran, and in the company to meet him were Mr. and Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, Dr. and Mrs. Madison Taylor, Mrs. Inglis and Miss Patten of Washington.

The marriage of Miss Jean Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morton of Chicago, and niece of the Secretary of the Navy, to Mr. Joseph Cudahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cudahy, also of Chicago, will be celebrated October 1 at Arbor Lodge, Nebraska City, Neb.

The marriage of Miss Alice Howe Brown, daughter of Representative and Mrs. James W. Brown of Pennsylvania and Samuel Clarke Reed will take place at the home of the bride's parents, in Woodland road, near Pittsburgh, Saturday afternoon, October 1. Miss Florence Howe Brown will be her sister's only attendant. William McKenna Reed, a brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Mr. Reed is a son of George W. Reed of Woodmont street, East St. Louis, and is assistant cashier of the People's National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse spent last week at St. Louis with their son and several friends, and are now back at Lenox. They have several entries at the horse show.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle and Miss Carlisle of this city, who have been abroad all summer, returned to New York yesterday.

Dr. Joseph Ledy will give a luncheon tomorrow at his Narragansett cottage in honor of Judge White of the United States Supreme Court.

The British ambassador and Lady Dufferin will be in honor at a luncheon yesterday at Lenox.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, who are visiting Mrs. James P. Kernochan at Newport, were to leave there today for this city.

Mrs. John Robertson left on the 12th for Pennsylvania to visit her sister.

Mrs. Andrew B. Graham, with her three boys, is spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

Rev. A. De Long of Easton and his friend, Rev. J. A. Feger of Bangor, Pa., are spending their vacation in this city as the guests of Rev. De Long's daughter, Mrs. Paul S. Gable, 87 street northeast. Both men are veterans of the civil war, the former having been stationed here at the time of Lincoln's assassination.

Mr. E. Gullford and family of 405 D street northeast have returned from a vacation at Beach. They had in their party Mrs. E. R. Reynolds, Messrs. Frank, Robert and Arthur Reynolds, Messrs. C. W. Wood, Powell, Lender, Miss Marie Buccachan, Miss May and Arthur Gullford.

The marriage of Mr. G. W. Keys of Atlantic City and Mrs. Adele Johnson of 2117 K street, northwest, took place yesterday. Miss May Tobias and Mr. Edw. Lucas attended the couple. The presents were numerous. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, Messrs. C. W. Wood, Powell, Reed, Hicks, Miss Lila Reeder, Messrs. Breder, Charles Reeder, William Brooks, Misses Beatrice Wright, Flora Reeder and Mr. T. J. Lucas.

Miss Hadger and Miss Pauline Hadger have returned from a trip through the west, which included a month at the St. Louis exposition.

Miss Lottie Langhney of Capitol Hill has returned from a two months' vacation at Woodlawn, in the Blue Ridge mountains.

Miss Margaret Pierpont and Miss Evelyn Price of this city are now on an extensive visiting trip to Maryland and Virginia, and are expected home in November.

Mr. Chas. E. Dudley of Georgetown, D. C., an old veteran fireman, and Miss Ella Dudley of Falls Church, Va., were married yesterday by Rev. Alvan Smith of Peck's Chapel at the residence of the former in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. B. West Baker of Winchester, Va., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Love Virginia Baker, to Mr. McKenney Henry of Washington, D. C. The ceremony will take place at Glendoblin, the Baker home, near Winchester, on Wednesday, September 21, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Marsh Saunders of Buffalo have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Tuna V. to Mr. Percy Hickling Russell of this city. The ceremony will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Kenmore M. E. Church, and it will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride. At home at No. 3115 11th street, Washington, D. C.

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses have been issued as follows: Frank J. Shoop and Maud M. Mead. Robert H. Washington of Sunbury, Pa., and Lila A. Burks of this city.

Robert Doyle and Caroline Davis, both of Prince William county, Va. Ephraim Carter and Gertrude Thomas. J. Hubbard Bean and Alice L. Everett. George W. Simms and Lottie Willis.

Deaths in the District. The following deaths were reported to the health office for the twenty-four hours ended at noon today: Rosetta Bailey, Freedmen's Hospital, 14 years. James Bell, Freedmen's Hospital, 62 years. Jennie Bildman, 1407 8th street northwest, 72 years. Cyrus Brown, Freedmen's Hospital, 65 years. Lillian L. Curtin, 956 Florida avenue northwest, 1 year.

Margaret E. Main, Georgetown University Hospital, 17 years. Helen E. Marks, 521 7th street southeast, 70 years.

Woodford G. McDowell, 1429 Rhode Island avenue northwest, 86 years. Mack Neddow, Children's Hospital, 4 months.

August L. Ockert, 500 4th street southeast, 70 years. Mabel Randolph, 7 Keadys court northwest, 7 months.

Chester A. Schnopp, 806 7th street southwest, 20 years. Mary Scott, 10 McCullough street northwest, 1 year.

John P. Strom, 1 Crabtree court southwest, 64 years. Beverly Tucker, 215 K street northwest, 62 years.

Geneva Wahler, 217 Fillmore street, Annapolis, 63 years. Ignatius Wahler, 1132 Half street southeast, 64 years.

Ruth E. Winfield, 507 Virginia avenue southeast, 3 months.

The Society of the Chemical Industry of London, now on tour of this country, will be given a reception with a buffet supper tonight at Rauscher's. About 100 members and twenty-five ladies make up the company, and the cake-walk, which is to be a feature of the entertainment, was arranged at the request of the Londoners, who have long desired to see this particular style of enjoyment in the way of a dance.

A farewell reception was given to Mr. George Biddle last Sunday evening at his residence, 506 L street southwest, by his friends, in honor of his departure to Baltimore College. The rooms were artistically decorated with palms and cut flowers. Music, singing and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. James King, Mrs. Chas. Sanford, the Misses McCauley, Miss Carrie King, Miss E. Mae King, Miss Ruth King, Miss May Hall, Miss Ida Hawk, Miss Isabelle Fanning and Messrs. William Pfunder, William Fanning and William F. Zanner.

A reception will be tendered Thursday evening next, the 15th instant, in honor of Mrs. Lida A. Oldroyd, national junior vice president of the W. B. C., at the home of the Potomac Department president, Mrs. Ida L. Chase, 128 Harrison street, Annapolis. Some confusion has arisen as to the date of this reception, but those who received cards are advised that they have correct information.

Among the passengers landed at Baltimore by the steamer Brooklyn, from the island of Jamaica, today last, were Mrs. Jane S. McLean, Mrs. Martha E. Armstrong and Miss Lillie Bucher of this city.

A granddaughter of the late Secretary of State Bayard, Miss Mabel Bayard Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Warren, will be married shortly to Mr. Joseph Gardner Bradley. The bride-elect is tall, slender, with fair coloring, and excels in all the out-door athletic pastimes. She has a younger sister, Katherine, named for her brilliant aunt, Katherine Bayard.

Whose sudden death caused such a sensation during the first Cleveland administration, who is already a fine horsewoman, and two brothers, Samuel D. Warren, Jr., and Bayard Warren.

Representative and Mrs. Morrill gave a dinner last week at Harbor in honor of Representative Bourke Cockran, and in the company to meet him were Mr. and Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, Dr. and Mrs. Madison Taylor, Mrs. Inglis and Miss Patten of Washington.

The marriage of Miss Jean Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morton of Chicago, and niece of the Secretary of the Navy, to Mr. Joseph Cudahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cudahy, also of Chicago, will be celebrated October 1 at Arbor Lodge, Nebraska City, Neb.

The marriage of Miss Alice Howe Brown, daughter of Representative and Mrs. James W. Brown of Pennsylvania and Samuel Clarke Reed will take place at the home of the bride's parents, in Woodland road, near Pittsburgh, Saturday afternoon, October 1. Miss Florence Howe Brown will be her sister's only attendant. William McKenna Reed, a brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Mr. Reed is a son of George W. Reed of Woodmont street, East St. Louis, and is assistant cashier of the People's National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse spent last week at St. Louis with their son and several friends, and are now back at Lenox. They have several entries at the horse show.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle and Miss Carlisle of this city, who have been abroad all summer, returned to New York yesterday.

Dr. Joseph Ledy will give a luncheon tomorrow at his Narragansett cottage in honor of Judge White of the United States Supreme Court.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

A BUFFET SUPPER AND A CAKE WALK FOR VISITORS.

Recent and Coming Events Along Hospitable Lines—Travel Plans—Personal Notes.

The Society of the Chemical Industry of London, now on tour of this country, will be given a reception with a buffet supper tonight at Rauscher's. About 100 members and twenty-five ladies make up the company, and the cake-walk, which is to be a feature of the entertainment, was arranged at the request of the Londoners, who have long desired to see this particular style of enjoyment in the way of a dance.

A farewell reception was given to Mr. George Biddle last Sunday evening at his residence, 506 L street southwest, by his friends, in honor of his departure to Baltimore College. The rooms were artistically decorated with palms and cut flowers. Music, singing and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. James King, Mrs. Chas. Sanford, the Misses McCauley, Miss Carrie King, Miss E. Mae King, Miss Ruth King, Miss May Hall, Miss Ida Hawk